

Helpful hints to ready you for Le Groupe Maurice Open House Days.

- 1. Set clear objectives and expectations for the day: what matters most to you in a retirement residence (services, activities, location, etc.)?
- 2. Prepare a list of specific questions to ask. This is the perfect time to learn about all that's included to help you make a more informed decision. (We've listed some questions below to help you remember everything!)
- 3. Consider bringing a loved one or friend along to get their input and discuss your options.
- 4. Bring a notebook and pen to jot down your observations and the answers to your questions.
- 5. Feel free to take photos or videos of the facilities.
- 6. Use this opportunity to meet our on-site team members:
  - General Manager
  - Department heads (recreation, maintenance, food services, rentals and customer service)
  - Director of Nursing
- 7. Seize the chance to chat with the residents you meet. This will provide you with diverse and genuine insights into residence life, as well as a good sense of the community's overall atmosphere.
- 8. Pick up brochures and other materials available during your visits. You can then review them at your leisure to make a more thoughtful decision.
- 9. Before you leave: be sure to book an appointment with one of our leasing representatives for a personalized consultation to discuss your needs.
- 10. Last but not least, wear comfortable shoes to ensure a pleasant visit. There's a lot to see!
